Article 7. Demonstration Project – Department of Motor Vehicles

§ 549.80. Department of Motor Vehicles Demonstration Project: Managerial and Supervisory Selection and Examination.

Under State Personnel Board supervision, the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) shall conduct a demonstration project, pursuant to Sections 19600, 19605, and 19607 of the Government Code, affecting the examination process to select candidates for positions designated M01 and for positions of Manager IV, DMV, designated S01. During this demonstration project, DMV shall conduct examinations for the above identified classifications pursuant to the procedures in Article 4 (Section 548.30) and Article 5 (Section 548.40 through 548.52) for Career Executive Assignments, with the following exceptions:

(a) The examination announcements specified by Section 548.41 shall specify the minimum qualifications for the position as prescribed for the specific classification.

(b) The appointing power shall be governed by Section 171.1 in determining whether an applicant has completed the minimum time required by the experience component in the minimum qualifications, if any.

(c) Any eligible employee may appeal to the State Personnel Board, pursuant to Section 548.49, within thirty (30) days of the date of the notification of examination results.

(d) Examinations may be either open or promotional.
